

Company Email Policies and Guidelines

1. Email Composition Policies

- Use clear and concise language
- Structure emails with an introduction, body, and conclusion
- Use bullet points for easy readability when listing items
- Proofread all emails before sending

2. Tone and Language Guidelines

- Maintain a professional tone at all times
- Avoid using slang, jargon, or overly casual language
- Be courteous and respectful in all communications
- Use gender-neutral language when possible

3. Email Formatting Standards

- Use a standard, easy-to-read font (e.g., Arial, Calibri, Times New Roman)
- Font size should be between 10-12 points
- Use bold for headings and sparingly for emphasis
- Maintain consistent paragraph spacing

4. Subject Line Best Practices

- Keep subject lines concise and relevant to the email content
- Use action-oriented language when appropriate
- Avoid using all caps or excessive punctuation
- Include keywords for easy searching and filtering

5. Signature Policies

- Include full name, job title, and department
- Provide company name and logo (if applicable)
- Include professional contact information (phone, email, office location)
- Optional: Include social media profiles or company website
- Keep signatures consistent across the organization

6. Attachment Handling

- Clearly reference any attachments in the email body
- Use descriptive file names for attachments
- Consider file size and compress large files when possible
- Scan all attachments for viruses before sending

7. Confidentiality and Disclaimer Policies

- Include a confidentiality statement for sensitive information
- Use appropriate classification labels (e.g., Confidential, Internal Use Only)
- Include legal disclaimers when necessary
- Be aware of data protection regulations (e.g., GDPR) when handling personal information

8. Response Time Expectations

- Acknowledge receipt of emails within 24 hours
- Provide estimated response times for complex inquiries
- Use out-of-office messages when unavailable for extended periods
- Prioritize urgent emails appropriately

9. CC and BCC Usage Guidelines

- Use CC for recipients who need to be informed but not take action
- Use BCC for protecting recipient privacy in mass emails
- Avoid overuse of CC to prevent unnecessary inbox clutter
- Consider using "Reply All" judiciously

10. Email Etiquette and Professionalism

- Begin emails with appropriate salutations
- End emails with professional closings (e.g., "Best regards," "Sincerely,")
- Avoid using email for sensitive or confidential discussions
- Be mindful of cultural differences in international communications
